

Dear Carlos,

The web has been heralded as the great equalizer for businesses. You help your clients make the most of it, enabling them to stay competitive and thrive online. In recognition of your dedication to digital media and to keeping your clients on the cutting edge of advertising, we are delighted to announce your new status as a Premier Google Partner.

The Premier Partner badge is both a symbolic and tangible way to differentiate yourself in the market, and comes with a higher level of service and commitment from Google. We hope your agency will take full advantage of the resources now at your disposal and we look forward to our continued partnership.

Sincerely,
Allan Thygesen
